CITATION

25-26 DECEMBER 2020

On 25 December 2020, based on input of presence of 2-3 unidentified terrorists, a cordon and search operation was launched in village in Kashmir.

Havildar Anil Kumar Tomar was leading a Combat Action Team for the operation. He was directed by the Mission Leader to readjust the cordon. While moving for the task, he came under heavy fire from the terrorists and sustained bullet injury in thigh. Displaying utmost courage in the face of enemy, he responded with accurate fire and neutralized one terrorist. Then he pursued the second terrorist, injured him and cornered him inside a house. When Mission Leader decided to address the house using an excavator, Havildar Anil Kumar Tomar, despite being injured, volunteered to guide the excavator. When the house was being addressed, the injured second terrorist emerged from the house firing indiscriminately. He engaged the second terrorist and neutralized him on the spot and subsequently fell unconscious. He was evacuated from the location but succumbed to his injuries and laid down his life in the line of duty.

For his indomitable spirit and exceptional bravery under grave mortal danger in neutralization of two terrorist and making the supreme sacrifice for the nation, Havildar Anil Kumar Tomar is recommended for the award of "SHAURYA CHAKRA (POSTHUMOUS)".

Rifleman (General Duty) Rakesh was part of an ambush after receiving information of move of insurgents for extortion and killing of civilians in a village in Assam on 22/23 May 2021.

The Operational contact was established at 0200 hrs and heavy firefight with the column had confirmed neutralization of four insurgents. At 0400 hours, Rifleman Rakesh sensing a gap in the ambush, reorganized his location along with his buddy Rifleman Robinson. While shifting to bridge the gap, they drew heavy fire from the tail end of the ambush. Rifleman Rakesh spotted two insurgents fleeing the ambush in cover of dense foliage. He immediately pursued through woods under covering fire of his buddy and closed in to cut off escape route. Rifleman Rakesh shot dead one fleeing insurgent but being out of cover he drew heavy fire from the second insurgent. Displaying nerve of steel and quick thinking, he crawled to take cover of a fallen tree. Showcasing superlative combat shooting he shot dead the second insurgent also.

For his exceptional tactical acumen, selflessness, inspiring leadership and courage beyond compare while eliminating two dreaded insurgent, Rifleman Rakesh Sharma is recommended for the award of "SHAURYA CHAKRA".
