Across the country, eager citizens awaited the arrival of the IEC vans. These gatherings are also witnessing vibrant cultural performances by women, school students, and local artists, adding a festive touch to the 'Yatra' at various locations.

Beneficiaries Share Experiences Through ‘Meri Kahani Meri Zubani’

As part of the programme, beneficiaries from different parts of the nation are sharing their experiences of how the Government’s schemes have transformed their lives.

Sanjay Jadhav's child heart surgery was done under Ayushman Bharat Yojana. Jadhav, a resident of Ambejawalge village in Dharashiv Taluka, feels thankful for receiving the benefit of the scheme, because of which his child's life was saved.

Gendavati Maurya of Sultanpur was suffering from kidney stones and required around Rs. 2 lakh for her treatment procedure. However, constrained by financial limitations, she couldn't afford the procedure. Fortunately, through the Ayushman Bharat Yojana, she received the necessary treatment entirely free of cost and is healthy now. She conveyed her gratitude to the Prime Minister.

Vikasit Bharat: A Pledge to Make India a Developed Nation by 2047

People continue to take a pledge for Viksit Bharat as part of the programs across the nation. Even the harsh climatic conditions in some parts of the country is not deterring people from gathering, and taking the pledge, committing themselves to be part of India’s growth journey.

The Viksit Bharat Sankalp Yatra was flagged off by Prime Minister Narendra Modi on November 15, 2023, at Khunti, Jharkhand on the occasion of Janjatiya Gaurav Diwas.

The Viksit Bharat Sankalp Yatra is not merely an outreach initiative; it is a significant step towards ensuring that the benefits of government schemes reach every citizen, thereby achieving 100% saturation and fostering active citizen participation in the country's development. By January 25, 2024, the Yatra aims to cover all districts across the country.
