

CEA
50th Foundation Day
Awards

For

Outstanding Contribution to Power Sector

Award for Outstanding Contribution to Power Sector

Shri Laxmikant Singh
Rathore
Director

- Conducted more than 40 awareness workshops on electrical safety for technical personnel in Western Region
- Published 11 technical papers on electrical safety and the investigation

Award for Outstanding Contribution to Power Sector

Shri Nitin Prakash
Director

- Encyclopaedia of coal logistics
- Pivotal role in the efficient management of coal logistics
- Development of a coal rationalization methodology
- Initiative in developing software solutions to streamline various processes within the CEA

Award for Outstanding Contribution to Power Sector

Ms. Jyotsana Kapoor
Deputy Director

- Expert in modelling tools for planning studies
- Single handedly executed the transition of data from old tool to highly sophisticated state-of-the-art "ORDENA" tool.
- Pivotal contribution in preparation of National Electricity Plans
- Authored 5 technical papers

Award for Outstanding Contribution to Power Sector

Shri Praveen Kumar
Sahukari
Deputy Director

- Expert in Commercial and financial analysis of power sector related matters
- Individual contribution in recommending the tariff for nuclear projects
- Tariff simulation of hydro power projects
- Played a key role in negotiations for tariff for international power projects

Award for Outstanding Contribution to Power Sector

- Published 4 technical papers
- Digitization of the budgeting process at CEA, resulting in an impressive 99.45% utilization rate in 2022-23
- Efficient implementation of the newly introduced PFMS e-bill system resulting in Zero pendency

Shri Vagicharla
Karthik
Deputy Director