

Agreements Opened the Doors to Solutions in North East

Due to the policy efforts of the Central Government, peace and stability have been established in North East through dialogue and settlement of several decades-old problems.

NLFT-SD Agreement (2019)

Under the guidance of Hon'ble Home Minister Shri Amit Shah, the Union Home Ministry signed an agreement with the Sabir Kumar Debbarma-led National Liberation Front of Tripura and 88 activists surrendered with 44 weapons at a surrender ceremony. Under the agreement, a provision of a special economic development package of ₹100 crore was made for the development of tribal areas.

BRU Agreement (2020)

An agreement was signed by the Union Government of India, Government of Tripura, and Government of Mizoram on January 16, 2020 with representatives of BRU migrants in the presence of the Hon'ble Home Minister Shri Amit Shah ji for the permanent domicile of BRU (Reang) in Tripura. As per the agreement, 6959 BRU families (37,136 persons) will be rehabilitated in Tripura and for their rehabilitation, in Tripura, a financial assistance/ package of ₹661 crore will be given.

Bodo Accord (2020)

The MoU was signed on January 27, 2020 by the Government of India, the Government of Assam, and representatives of Bodo Groups to resolve the long pending Bodo issue in the presence of Hon'ble Home Minister Shri Amit Shah. A special development package of ₹1500 crore is also provisioned. After this agreement, 1615 workers of NDFB factions laid down their arms.

Karbi Agreement (2021)

In the presence of Union Home Minister, Shri Amit Shah, a historic Karbi Anglong Agreement to end the decades-old crisis ensuring Assam's territorial integrity was signed in New Delhi with representatives of Karbi groups on September 4, 2021. After this more than 1000 armed cadres renounced violence and joined the mainstream of society.

Tribal Peace Agreement (2022)

To resolve the long pending issue of tribals and tea garden workers in Assam, a Memorandum of Understanding (MoU) was signed in presence of Hon'ble Home Minister Shri Amit Shah with representatives of 8 tribal groups on September 15, 2022, after which 1182 cadres of tribal groups joined the mainstream by laying down arms.

Assam-Meghalaya Inter-State Boundary Agreement (2022)

A historic agreement was signed in presence of Union Home Minister Shri Amit Shah on March 29, 2022 to settle the dispute of six out of the total twelve areas of an inter-state border dispute between the states of Assam and Meghalaya.

Assam-Arunachal Pradesh Inter-State Boundary Agreement (2023)

Today, on April 20, 2023, the historic MoU was signed by the Chief Ministers of Assam and Arunachal Pradesh in the presence of Home Minister Shri Amit Shah. This MoU shall be a full and final agreement in respect of the 123 disputed villages and no new claim pertaining to any area or village shall be raised in the future.

Dimasa National Liberation Army (DNLA) Agreement (2023)

On April 27, 2023, in the presence of Home Minister Mr. Amit Shah, a tripartite agreement was signed between the Government of India, the Government of Assam and the Dimasa National Liberation Army (DNLA) to end violence and ensure the all-round development of the Dimasa people. The representatives of the Dimasa National Liberation Army have agreed to abandon the path of violence and join the peaceful democratic process, and 168 armed cadres have abandoned violence and joined the mainstream of society as a result of this agreement.

Agreement with United National Liberation Front (UNLF) (2023)

The peace agreement with the United National Liberation Front. The Government of India and the Government of Manipur signed a peace agreement with the oldest armed group in Manipur, the United National Liberation Front (UNLF), in New Delhi on November 29, 2023. This agreement will usher in a new era of peace, particularly in Manipur and generally in the Northeast. A Peace Monitoring Committee (PMC) will also be formed to monitor the implementation.

Agreement with United Liberation Front of Assam (ULFA) (2023)

On December 29, 2023, the Government of India, the Government of Assam, and representatives of the United Liberation Front of Assam (ULFA) signed a Memorandum of Settlement in the presence of Union Minister of Home Amit Shah. Under the Special Development Package, ₹5,000 crores will be provided over five years. A committee will also be formed by the Ministry of Home Affairs to monitor the implementation of the time-bound program to fulfil ULFA's demands.

