

Celebrating Democratic Spirit
Highlights from the Sixth Phase of Lok Sabha Elections (2024)

May 25, 2024

On May 25, 2024, the sixth phase of the Lok Sabha elections saw a robust voter turnout across 58 parliamentary constituencies (PCs) in eight States/UTs, including Haryana, the NCT of Delhi, Bihar, Jharkhand, Jammu and Kashmir, Odisha, Uttar Pradesh, and West Bengal. Concurrently, voters in Odisha also cast their ballots for 42 Assembly Constituencies of the Odisha State Legislative Assembly.

This phase highlighted the enthusiastic participation of various societal segments, underscoring the inclusiveness of the electoral process. Youth, Divyang, and First-time voters demonstrated their commitment to democracy. Star voters also participated, inspiring the nation to exercise their voting rights.
