

About PESA Rankings & PESA Indicators

Why PESA Ranking?

The Provisions of the Panchayats (Extension to Scheduled Areas) Act, 1996 was enacted to ensure that Gram Sabhas in Scheduled Areas are empowered to manage their land, water and forest resources (community resources) and safeguard their traditions and customs.

While the PESA Act provides a strong legal framework, its implementation varies across States due to different provisions in State Panchayat and subject laws, PESA rules and implementation strategy. The PESA Rankings seek to bring objectivity, transparency, and accountability by measuring performance of States on mutually agreed indicators.

These 100-point indicators are expected to help the States to objectively assess their areas for improvement so that resolute actions may be taken by them to fill the gaps in implementation of PESA. The PESA Indicators were formally released during PESA Mahotsav on 24th December, 2025, the day when PESA Act came into force in 1996.

Process of development of PESA Indicators for PESA Ranking

The PESA Indicators were developed through a consultative and participatory process in which:

- The Ministry of Panchayati Raj prepared an initial framework aligned with the provisions of the PESA Act, 1996.
- These draft indicators were shared with all PESA States for comments, validation and data inputs, keeping in view State-specific legal and administrative contexts.
- The information and feedback received from States formed the basis for further refinement.
- The Ministry reviewed and finalised the indicators to ensure that they are comprehensive, measurable and reflective of ground realities.

The final indicator framework, therefore, represents a shared national assessment tool, evolved in partnership with the States.

PESA Ranking on the basis of PESA Indicators

On the basis of above-mentioned indicators, tentative marks were assigned by each of the 10 PESA States by Ministry of Panchayati Raj and these marks were shared with the States for their observations. On the basis of the feedback received from the States, marks against each of the indicators were finalized and rankings were arrived it. Detailed framework against each of the indicators can be seen at the PESA Portal developed by the Ministry dedicatedly for PESA related information. PESA Ranking is therefore a tool that reinforces accountability, highlights progress, and provides a clear roadmap for strengthening Gram Sabha empowerment.
